PRESIDENT'S REPORT

I don't know where the time goes. Our next meeting is coming up very soon on 26 August. I hope you'll join us for another interesting time of sharing with other dowsers as we learn together.

Our Committee Member and Newsletter Editor Heather Wilks has agreed to present to us on some of her experiences with dowsing. She's a great fan of American dowser Raymon Grace so will share part of his work that has influenced her so much. It promises to be a very informative day. Heather will also lead us with some scrambling as she usually does at the beginning of meetings.

At our last meeting featuring Practical Dowsing we had various dowsing exhibits that were again enjoyed by all. We know you're keen to learn more about the hands-on aspects of dowsing, so we're always aiming to bring you more of that.

With the current energetic changes to the earth and subsequently us, many people seem to be feeling very angry and upset and don't know why. Some sensitive folk are picking up more on other people's feelings. I think as dowsers we have a lot to offer such people by gently guiding and encouraging others as we use our dowsing and related skills.

We can reassure, scramble energy, dowse properties and clear energies that may be affecting others adversely. Many of us have some sort of healing modality to offer and although there are those who are unaware of or wary about complementary therapies, once they break through that barrier, most find them helpful. Often they're the only things that do help. I keep finding that in many homes, there's non-beneficial energy related to beds. Bad energy dumped through worries about what happened in the day, what may happen in the future, people who behaved badly, and so on. For those without the appropriate Reiki symbols or other tools, I recommend brushing these thoughts away while making the bed each day and replacing them with loving thoughts. I also suggest creating a movie in the mind about the way they'd like their lives to be. There are so many positive things we can do to create our wonderful future as we head towards the end of 2012 and into a new world in 2013. I hope to see you all on 26 August.

OUR NEXT MEETING

As your friendly Newsletter Editor I'm presenting at the next DSV meeting on Sunday 26 August. It's no secret, I'm a dedicated devotee of American Dowser, Raymon Grace, using his methods of pendulum scrambling on a daily basis.

However it was Raymon's film "Blueprint for Freedom" that dramatically expanded my repertoire of healing with pendulum scrambling.

OUR LAST MEETING

We held a Practical Dowsing day at our last meeting in June. As the pics show, it was very popular. There were various "tables" manned by DSV members demonstrating some of the different ways you can dowse for great results

DOWSING JOURNEYS

Developed from two interviews by DSV Member, Bernadette Hogan, as part of an ongoing segment.

Janet Jones – When I was young I loved listening to stories my mum used to tell about her childhood in a very rural area in another state in Australia. She described how she, my grandmother and uncles could dowse for water using green sticks as rods.

Stefan Bock - My first awareness of what I now know to be dowsing was when I was very young and heard about divining for water. Later I learned more from a Scout leader who worked as a linesman for the PMG (Postmaster-General's Dept, now Telstra). He was occasionally called in to check where underground water pipes and cables were before any digging was done. and frequencies and lots more! I am still a bit of a cynic, so I'm yet to actually find anything conclusive. Yet I keep meeting all these fairly normal people at the DSV who are wonderfully open minded and sincere with what they are doing, so I believe there has to be something to this dowsing thing.

As we all know, the trains wait for no one. So as usual I had to leave the DSV meeting early. This was the meeting where I had given a presentation on my dowsing experiences over the past eight years. With that over there was only one thing left to do. Go home.

MOON CALENDARS

Thanks to DSV member Susane Starc, the 2013 Astrological Calendars with the Moon Planting Guide will be available for purchase through the DSV again this year – priced at $10.

These delightful posters have been very popular in recent years. They're great to keep – and to give as a gift. To make sure you don't miss out, please place your order at the DSV meeting in August or October. You'll then be able to collect yours at our last DSV meeting for the year on 25 November 2012.
