PRESIDENT'S REPORT

On 29 July 2013, the world experienced a Grand Sextile, which in astrological terms is an extremely rare, six-pointed star, or hexagram, that forms in the heavens when six planets align, each approximately 60 degrees apart. When such an auspicious, archetypal symbol locks into position (like the tumblers inside the door of a vault falling into place), as happened in the early afternoon of July 29 (AEST), it signals the opening of a window of immense opportunity. It may even be the opportunity of a million lifetimes. It's certainly a time of greatly accelerated evolutionary potential – for ourselves, our planet, our solar system and possibly even our galaxy. The living reality behind the sacred geometry of the Grand Sextile is known by many names and descriptions around the world, depending upon one's cultural vantage point and level of perception. These include: the Vehicle of Ascension, the Vector Equilibrium, the Double Torus; the Star of David, the Yin/Yang duality, the Flower of Life, the Tree of Life, the Yab/Yum, the Hieros Gamos, the Sacred Marriage of Twin Flames, the Merkaba, the Chariot of the Gods, the Chariot of Fire and the Awakened Soul, to name a few.

With the portal opened wide on 29 July, it is said to be an opportunity for us to take bold action on behalf of all beings who suffer, including ourselves.

This information is drawn from Tara Faulkner PhD in an email received from PAN Melbourne www.dreamspellaustralia.org (Dianne Ward from PAN Melbourne spoke to us a few years ago and we have her talk recorded on CD at the DSV shop.)

I'm looking forward to hearing Maya Ward who is our guest presenter on 25 August. I heard her speak about her pilgrimage along Melbourne's Yarra River and felt inspired to invite her to present to the DSV. Maya has a real affinity with the river, having grown up near it, and lived at many places along it. She is also deeply connected with the land and has aboriginal connections who have shared their stories with her. I hope you can come along.

Lyn Wood, President

OUR NEXT MEETING

We are delighted that Maya Ward will present to the DSV for the first time on Sunday 25 August.

Maya is a permaculture teacher and an environmental educator, a devoted follower of CERES (Centre for Education and Research in Environmental Strategies) Community Park in Melbourne's East Brunswick and the Moora Moora Co-operative Community, Healesville in rural Vic.

Maya Ward

Maya will speak about her experiences on her pilgrimage along our city's beloved Yarra River. She has written about it in her book titled, "The Comfort of Water". Apparently she is the first to have taken this journey and written about it for more than 100 years.

OUR LAST MEETING

At our June meeting Alan Robison, DSV Secretary, presented on "Practical Dowsing with a Health Perspective".

Alan Robison

He spoke about his fascination in working with colour to heal. Inspired by Allan Brooker from The Brooker Colour Therapy Clinic in New Zealand. Alan has now developed his own approach, based on his dowsing.

the Flower of Life Mandala to send the vibrations of the specific tabulations to the person being assisted.

NEW DSV CONSTITUTION

We are very pleased to announce that the DSV has received written confirmation from the Victorian Justice Department approving the new DSV Constitution – the one which was unanimously agreed on at our AGM in April 2013.

You can view the DSV Constitution at our website. Go to www.dsv.org and click on "About the Society", then on "Membership". The direct link is: <http://www.dsv.org.au/membership.shtml>

Our special thanks to Committee Members Alan Robison, Lyn Wood and Fred Ward for their caring diligence in bringing this to fruition.

DOWSING JOURNEYS

Developed from an interview by DSV Member, Bernadette Hogan, as part of an ongoing segment.

Annabelle Clucas - This is my second year as a member of the DSV. One of my dear friends, Margaret Crutch (also a DSV member) encouraged me to join.

We met about 15 years ago through Pranic Healing. We were all very interested in many different alternative healing modalities, metaphysics and spirituality. Margaret and the others quite often used their pendulums at our meditation get together, so it was a natural progression for me to also become interested in dowsing. I always felt confident using the pendulum – it just seemed a normal thing to do.

ANCESTRAL LAND

Another welcome article by DSV Life Member, Mick Moran.

I do remote clearing and healing, and a property in an inner Melbourne suburb was too far for me to visit from rural Victoria where I live. I was willing to have a go at easing the problems.

The results were dramatic. So I suggest you just use your dowsing skills to clear negativity and replace it with positive energy wherever you go – whether it's in your own home, hospitals, churches, courts, schools, football stadiums, etc. If we all did this, I reckon the world will be just a little bit better for everyone.

BOOK REVIEW

"Touchstones for Today", by Alanna Moore. Reviewed by DSV Committee Member, Lolita Gunning. (Title previously called "The Magic of Menhirs and Circles of Stone" - revised release 2013.)

Alanna Moore wrote that her intention in writing this book was:

- 'to encourage people to discover for themselves, the magical transforming energies of stone' and
- 'to inspire readers to create their own energetic stone arrangements as Touchstones of interaction with the Sacred Earth.'

(Alanna Moore will present to the DSV on Sunday 24 November. Make it a date! Ed.)
