PRESIDENT'S REPORT

I'm looking forward to seeing you at our next DSV meeting in April, our second for the year.

At the start of the meeting we'll conduct our Annual General Meeting (AGM) and we promise to keep the formalities to a minimum. I'd like to take this opportunity to formally thank Alan Robison for his wonderful services as the DSV Secretary over recent years. Alan has chosen to stand down from this role at the April AGM.

We are blessed to have a very solid, friendly and supportive Committee. If you have been a member for a while, perhaps you might consider standing for the Committee yourself at this AGM. Please contact me or any other of our Committee members to indicate your interest.

We regularly communicate via email between meetings so that's something for you to consider. Another important factor is the need to be available to come to the Committee meetings at 11 am at the Mount Waverley Community Centre. With this early start on each meeting day we set up the room, then have our Committee meeting, before people begin to arrive for the afternoon. I think we're probably the most laid back around!

With the formalities over we will be ready for our presenter. DSV member Chris Gerrett often has interesting questions and shares fascinating insights during our meetings. For the next meeting I am pleased to be interviewing Chris about her dowsing exploits. She is a very keen member, and travels all the way from Wangaratta in regional Victoria to join in with like-minded people.

Annual Membership Fees were due at the last meeting in February, so please be ready to sign up again if you haven't already done so.

I hope you'll bring a friend or two along on 19 April for my interview with Chris Gerrett.

Lyn Wood, President

OUR NEXT MEETING

For our next meeting on Sunday 19 April, DSV President Lyn Wood will interview one of our members, Chris Gerrett.

Chris dowsed with wires for about 14 years and with a pendulum for about 4 years. Over time she eventually gave up using her dowsing wires and concentrated on pendulum dowsing instead.

She admits to being a bit in the "closet" about some of what she does. She secretly works on family and friends, and does her bit to help ease the drug situation (Ice in particular). She dowses to encourage peace, and to contribute to improved aboriginal issues, healthy land and good water, safe travel – always trusting that the right information will come at the appropriate time.

Chris is a good example of someone who uses dowsing constructively in so many ways to help others and situations in need of more balance.

OUR LAST MEETING

It was an unusual start for the DSV year when we introduced Amanda Gore, the Australian keynote International speaker, via video to the meeting. She's not a dowser but brought us lots of joy, and some very practical information for leading a better, healthier and more positive life.

Amanda Gore

It was one of the most animated meetings ever, with so many responding to Amanda's zest for life.

DOWSING AND NUMBERS IN TODAY'S DIGITAL WORLD

By Georgina Haul

Dowsing has many useful applications – finding answers to questions, divining the location of water for bores etc., healing and working with just about anything one wants to pay attention to. When a dowsing practitioner starts sending or clearing energy, you are moving into the field of radionics (sending energy to a distant object or person), and dowsing and radionics have gone hand in hand for quite some time now. The destination object has usually been a name, but today this may be changing.....

With the advent of the Internet, we see people identified in a digital way, mostly by their I.P addresses, their phone numbers or email addresses, and possibly other ways. So it is not uncommon for energy, whether good or otherwise, to be directed towards these digital destinations every time we contact someone, or someone contacts us, whether either party are aware of it or not.

Numbers themselves are interesting. There are so many rates out there now for all sorts of purposes. For example: Grabovoi numbers, Rife rates, Lloyd Mears' rates and so on.

THE GIFTS OF DR. EMOTO

Dr. Masaru Emoto was a renowned Japanese researcher who pioneered an astonishing discovery about water. In 1994 he had the inspiration to freeze water and observe it with a microscope.

After a couple of months of trial and error his idea bore fruit. He and his team became totally absorbed in the idea of using intention to change water. They visually documented molecular changes in water using his unique photographic techniques. This led to a new consciousness of one of the Earth's most precious resources. His experiments showed that water reacts to positive thoughts and words - and that even the most polluted water can be cleansed.

Dr. Emoto passed away on 17 October 2014, leaving the world a wonderful legacy of groundbreaking discoveries about water. He literally changed what most of us did not know.

THE BRAIN

Your Brain Is More Powerful Than All The Computers On Earth.

By Elizabeth Armstrong Moore (Cnet News)

The human brain is truly awesome. A typical, healthy one houses some 200 billion nerve cells, which are connected to one another via hundreds of trillions of synapses.
