PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Following our AGM at the last meeting, I would like to thank three of our retiring DSV Committee members, Pauline Abbonizio, Carolyn Koludrovic and Shayz Yu-en for their excellent work on behalf of the DSV.

I'm pleased to report that all of the remaining Committee people have agreed to remain on board. Thanks to each of you. I am so pleased that our happy band continues.

Unfortunately there were no volunteers to fill the Secretary's role so that position currently remains vacant.

So what's entailed? Basically, all you need is an ability to come to our 11 am Committee meetings on the days of our public meetings, plus a computer with email facilities. Our meetings are always lively with many laughs. If you are able to volunteer as our new Secretary please contact me as soon as possible. Our Committee will be very pleased to have you join us. And by the way, it's not all work - there is often a lot of fun involved!

I am so pleased to say that we have been fortunate lately in having more of our members volunteering to present at our DSV meetings.

Joanna Sgarioto is our latest volunteer and will talk at our June meeting. Joanna sits quietly at our meetings, hiding a wealth of talent. Now she's ready to share some of her experiences. Joanna will talk about her dowsing and so much more during an interview presentation on Sunday 19 June. I look forward to welcoming you along. Feel free to bring a friend or two.

OUR NEXT MEETING

At our next meeting on Sunday 19 June we are pleased to be welcoming DSV Member Joanna Sgarioto for an interview about her experiences.

Joanna Sgarioto

Joanna will share her journey, a journey of her heart and talk about the power of love. Joanna's first dowsing teacher was a former DSV member and one of our speakers, Joan Evans. [Sadly Joan passed away this year, just before Easter. Ed.]

Joanna will talk about her Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) sighting when she was just 12 and how it has influenced her life. She later found a local UFO group which helped to validate her earlier experience.

She left her profession as a social worker after 25 years to embark on an exploration of energy at different levels. Joanna will discuss her dowsing, feng shui and Chinese astrology studies. She plans to share some feng shui tips and suggestions about how to engage with our subconscious minds.

This promises to be another fascinating DSV presentation. Please share the details with your friends and make it a date to join us in June.

OUR LAST MEETING

After the formalities of our AGM at our meeting in April, we were treated to a special presentation by Erika Soul. She was introduced by DSV Committee Member, Lolita Gunning. The two had worked together beforehand to prepare the talk about the Heart, Brain and Body connection.

Erika L. Soul and Lolita Gunning

Erika spoke about how the 'true' heart has been found to have its own intelligence and has to be more powerful than the brain. She explained that as we release blockages in the heart, more love, joy and happiness can flow through our hearts to ourselves and to others.

Instead of using muscle testing (kinesiology) and nikken magnets, Erika dowses with Dr Bradley Nelson's 'Emotion Code' (EC). Using his EC chart, she uses a pendulum to release trapped emotions around the heart - from the hidden heart wall. It is believed that as many as 80% of people have a hidden heart wall with trapped emotions. By dowsing you can check to see if this applies to yourself and/or others.

Details about Dr Bradley Nelson's EC are available here: <http://www.drbradleynelson.com/>

You can contact Erika L. Soul for details about her Intuitive Readings and Healing services: 0411 798 393 or <http://rainbowhealings.com/>

AN UPDATE ABOUT "Peaches"

DSV Treasurer, Malcolm Davies, and his wife, DSV Member, Judy Boyd presented at our meeting in February this year – speaking about the adventures of "Peaches", their pet cockatiel.

There has been a lot of interest ever since, on how observations of their bird led to some serious curiosity, which in turn led to their Spirit work. They'd reported in their February presentation that from November 2015 they'd taken about 350 lost souls to the light.

Astonishingly, Malcolm now reports that he and Judy (and Peaches) have been working continuously since that February presentation. In fact at the time of a briefing for this Newsletter, they had moved on another 685 souls from many different places in the world.

DOWSING THE MICHAEL AND MARY LINES LOCALLY

By DSV President, Lyn Wood

As reported in the last DSV Newsletter, I had been contacted by a dowser from England who wanted to meet with us whilst visiting Melbourne in April. Richard Summers is the founder of Essential St Edmunds which promotes and teaches dowsing and meditation in the magical medieval borough of Bury St Edmunds in Suffolk, England. It is known as the place where the Michael and Mary earth energy lines "kiss" in the site of the old Benedictine Abbey. (Further details available in the book, "The Sun and The Serpent" by Hamish Miller and Paul Broadhurst.) Richard himself had traced the Apollo and Athena Lines as a pilgrimage through France and Italy on a motorcycle, after attending the launch event of "The Dance of the Dragon" at St Michael's Mount in Cornwall.

One of our members said that she had dowsed the Michael and Mary lines at St Michael's church in nearby Kalorama. This is a small community located just north of Mount Dandenong in Victoria – some 35 km east of Melbourne's central business district (CBD).

I subsequently arranged to meet Richard and other interested dowzers. Six of us met with him for lunch at the Viewpoint Café in Kalorama (overlooking Silvan Reservoir). Our merry band included Wendy Carraro, Brunie Grozenger, Julia and Brian Foster, Ian Lewis, myself and of course Richard. We all enjoyed a lovely warming lunch with fine conversation on a cold autumn day.

Richard Summers, Lyn Wood, Ian Lewis at lunch

Richard had arrived early and dowsed to find where the Michael and Mary lines intersected. He suggested we dowsed outside the café as he'd found them within 100m. Brian found the Michael line coming down Ridge Road, and I found the Mary line closer to the Mount Dandenong Tourist Road. We followed that for some time, down the hill with rods in our right hands, extended, asking to be shown the route the Mary line was taking.

We soon found the intersection of the Michael and Mary lines down the hill. Richard asked me to get a map of the area and to dowsed for where the lines led, and then do the same on a map of Australia. He was also hoping to find them on his visit to Uluru shortly afterwards.

As we were running out of time and the weather had turned particularly cold, we decided to give St Michael's church (our original dowsing destination) a miss. Instead, we took Richard to the William Ricketts Sanctuary. Richard had expressed interest in learning about aboriginal culture and the impact on it by white people.
