DSV philosophy: Through awakening consciousness, we are empowered with knowledge and skills to unconditionally serve others.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We are living in exciting times, where thoughts are manifesting so quickly. I've been pondering the connection that dowsers have to each other.

Even though our interests and ways of doing things are often so varied, dowsing gives us an instant rapport. It excites me to think about having dowsing groups in each state of Australia - and sub-groups within each state.

As more people are finding the DSV via our new website, I'm now receiving even more inquiries, including some from further afield.

It seems there are many around the country who dowse, especially for water, but who don't tell others about it, or have the opportunity to join like-minded people to share their experiences. If you know of anyone who would like to meet with other dowsers, please ask them to contact us.

Lyn Wood, President

OUR LAST MEETING

Dennis Toop entertained and informed an enthusiastic gathering at our last meeting.

Dennis spoke about his personal experiences with real estate. When he dealt with the problems, the houses quickly sold, often at the next open inspection. As a result, agents began welcoming his contributions, even though Dennis said they thought him odd and had no interest in how he overcame the problems. He's now dowsed about 60 properties and has assisted in their sales.

IT'S ALL BLACK AND WHITE.

By DSV Member, Mick Moran

I recently read an article on the internet about dowsing energy fields. It said the easiest way to identify positive from negative energy fields was with the use of coloured dowsing rods. For beginners, it claims it's best to put a piece of coloured electrical tape, or paint the tips of your dowsing rods to signify positive and negative energy fields. I decided to use black for negative, and white for positive, just like a B grade Hollywood movie. The good guys are always dressed in white and the bad guys are always dressed in black. Sounded good to me.

YOUR MIND IS THE BEST WEAPON AGAINST ANY FLU.

By Cathy Sherman (source: Natural News)

This year's flu of the year has made its appearance and with it, media buzz about vaccines, normal treatments, such as hand washing, and so on. Most "experts" have neglected one basic, free, non-invasive, yet therapeutic modality: mind over flu matter.

The suggested antidote is the affirmation: "I am beyond group beliefs or the calendar. I am free from all congestion and influence."

For respiratory ailments in general, Hay states that the underlying cause is the fear of taking in life fully. Another way to say this is basic insecurity, the ultimate basis of most fear. The suggested affirmation in this case: "I am

DSV SPEAKERS ON CD

Anne Smith edits the talks of our speakers at DSV meetings to improve the sound (the audio quality varies). Fred Ward prints the labels and burns the copies. Both are big tasks and the DSV is grateful for the work done on our behalf.

Currently we have eight speakers on CD to choose from:

1. Dianne Ward - the Dreamspell Calendar.
2. Christine Rothwell - Astrology.
3. Bill Patterson - Meditation.
4. Joan Evans - Dowsing in Hawaii.
5. Charles Cheesman - December 2012 +
6. Lyn Wood - Property dowsing.
7. Heather Wilks - Pendulum Dowsing
8. Dennis Toop - Dowsing unsaleable homes.

The CDs are available at meetings for $5 each, and are great idea for listening to at your leisure, giving as a gift, or if you missed a speaker you really wanted to hear.
