DSV philosophy: Through awakening consciousness, we are empowered with knowledge and skills to unconditionally serve others.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Recently a small group of DSV members had an informal get-together in Mount Waverley with two visitors from the British Society of Dowzers.

Brian and Françoise talked to us about some of their dowsing experiences, then Brian demonstrated his gift for dowsing auras on two volunteers. Françoise belongs to an Archaeological group who dowse for Roman buildings. She is also interested in health dowsing and, among other methods uses EFT.

A couple of days later a few DSV Committee members took Françoise and Brian to the Healesville home of fellow Committee members, Mary and Fred Ward. Everyone enjoyed their hospitality, as well as the breathtaking views of the mountains and the many colourful native birds Fred had arranged for Murrundindi, elder of the Wurrinjeri people to meet and speak to us.

Murrundindi spoke about his family, his people and their role in Victoria. He explained more about Correnderck, the tribal land of his tribe. The Healesville Wildlife Sanctuary is located on just a quarter of this land. He told us that nearby Mount Riddell ("riddle") is a sacred mountain where there's a hidden place for the men's initiations and another for the women's.

It's great to see that the pendulum scrambling that Heather Wilks instigated at our meeting in June - supported by some special assistance and advice from Raymon Grace - has resulted in so much increased rainfall.

This is our last newsletter for the year, so on behalf of the Committee I'd like to wish you a Happy Christmas and exciting dowsing in 2010.

Lyn Wood, President

OUR NEXT MEETING

Our next speaker on 29th November will be Mary Ward who is a Music and Sound Therapist as well as the Secretary of the DSV Committee.

Mary Ward

Mary will explore what sound is and examine the nature of Intent and what it means related to dowsing - and the mind.

OUR LAST MEETING

Carolyn Koludrovic's wonderful presentation to the DSV on "The Energetic Anatomy of Man" was met with great enthusiasm. It was one of the largest DSV groups ever, which added to the occasion.

In making the point that we are far more than our dense physical bodies, Carolyn cleverly explained the importance of the chakras, the auras and the acupuncture meridians on our wellbeing.

Carolyn suggested that, as dowers, it would be a good idea to give ourselves permission to be gentle – to look at life with the wonder of a child and aim to be truthful. She also recommended that we find the courage to look at our detrimental belief patterns, with a view to creating positive change in our lives.

RAYMON GRACE MATERIALS

There was a huge response to bulk purchase offer for Raymon Grace's materials.

DINOSAUR DOWSING

By DSV Member, Mick Moran

A few years ago I purchased a small piece of petrified dinosaur bone from the cretaceous period (144-65 million years ago). It was once a dinosaur bone but had now turned into a piece of what looked like porous rock. It was fairly light and was collected from The Badlands of Utah in the USA. The moment I saw this strange piece of rock I decided it had dowsing potential.

What if? Lake Learmonth 65 Million Years Ago?

VICTORIA'S DROUGHT UPDATE

By DSV Newsletter Editor, Heather Wilks

At the October DSV meeting I was delighted when Fred Ward announced that since my talk on 21st June this year, there had been significant rainfall in the rural Healesville catchment area. As you'll recall, we used our pendulums with the group Intention of ending our State's drought.

Soon after I began emailing Raymon Grace about our dowsing to ease the drought and he generously dowsed on our behalf. He found that the Nature Spirits had left the area of Victoria and he invited them back in on our behalf. He suggested to me that we thank them on a daily basis. I emailed back to say that some of us were doing that and that there had indeed been an increase in rain. He then suggested that we bring in the Spirits of Love, Gratitude, Respect and Freedom to the rain and I notified many of the DSV members, asking for support in this.

My heartfelt thanks again to Raymon Grace for all his thoughtful guidance in this.

BOOK REVIEW

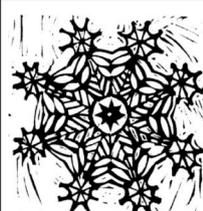

Raymon Grace's "Techniques That Work For Me"

By Heather Wilks, DSV newsletter editor.

This is the fourth edition of "Techniques". As an avid user of the third edition I was keen to see what changes had been incorporated.

If you don't have a copy of Raymon's "Techniques" book, I can heartily recommend it for its coverage on ways to heal disharmony in relationships, remove curses and change beliefs.

THE SEVEN DAY MENTAL DIET

By Heather Macauley

Extract from the Quester Autumn 2009 newsletter.

For seven consecutive days do not say or think anything negative. (This means if you go off the diet you have to start over!) Now don't throw up your arms and quit here!! This IS possible. Just remember that whatever is not working in your life is directly connected to what you're thinking. First the thought, then the experience – not the other way around!

Not saying anything negative is one thing, not thinking negatively is another! The truth is you can't help a negative thought that "occurs" to you, it's whether or not you continue to think the negative thought. Here's one method for consciously releasing negativity. Say to yourself, "This is none of my business".
