PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It was great to have all of our existing Committee Members returned at the AGM in April. We asked for some extra assistance on meeting days and there was a good response. Happily we kept the formalities moving so that we could move on to listen to Mick Moran who gave a terrific presentation.

I have been having lots of interaction with the British Society of Dowsers lately, which is exciting.

Recently I noticed via an email sent to me that they were conducting a weekend workshop on water dowsing. I emailed to ask if they would be recording it for people who couldn't attend, but unfortunately no, so that's not available to us. My email to the BSD asking about a recording led to an email from the co-ordinator of their Water Dowsing group, introducing me to Peter Golding. I've now ordered two copies of his book on water dowsing from the British Dowsers, one for the DSV Library and one for me.

I explained that as President of the DSV we get lots of requests to recommend someone to dowse for water. Unfortunately, none of us on the Committee knows of anyone who is readily able to dowse for water. (Our previous contacts seems to have disappeared off the radar.) As a result, on a couple of occasions I've dowsed for various people myself.

I recently visited Shahla Deeby, a long-time and Life Time Member of the DSV. Shahla hasn't been able to attend our meetings for health reasons. She still contributes by sending beautiful letters and stamps to the Committee.

Just a reminder that Heather is giving a presentation about dowsing at the Theosophical Society in Russell Street, City at 2 pm on Saturday 8 July.

Look forward to seeing you at the next DSV meeting on 18 June for Michael Czajka's talk.

OUR NEXT MEETING

Michael Czajka will present to the DSV at our next meeting on Sunday 18 June. He'll talk about EMFs, the good, the bad and the ugly.

Usually at the DSV, Electromagnetic fields (EMFs) are thought of as harmful. Michael will explain that they can be both helpful and harmful. He'll cover the origins of EMFs, their effects and how you can prevent or address EMF problems.

To begin, he will concentrate particularly on harmful EMFs, explaining ELF (Extra Low Frequency, RF (Radio Frequency) and HF (High Frequency (microwaves).

For the second part of his talk, Michael will focus on the healing effects of EMFs, also known as electromedicine – defined as the use of electricity in medicine.

He will talk about the devices which are already in use in hospitals, what's in common use and what is currently being researched.

Michael is a PhD chemist with particular interests in electromedicine and orthomolecular medicine – “smart” medicine (using both diet and nutritional supplements for healing).

OUR LAST MEETING

Mick Moran spoke at our last meeting in April. He talked about his progression from basic dowsing to a whole new world of healing.

Mick uses a simplified dowsing chart which he devised and kindly donated to the DSV. You can download a copy at the DSV site: dsv.org.au

He explained that he works with his Spiritual Team to address etheric, spiritual and physical levels. Mick believes that with dowsing we are working with and receiving assistance from Universal Consciousness.

ONE HAPPY PENDULUM USER

Thank you to DSV Member Lydia Duke for this welcome contribution about the joys of dowsing.

The roof was a-leaking and I was a-freaking. I picked up my pendulum, as always at the ready, to help make the best decision to solve the problem.

Of the 10 roofers I dowsed on, two had a YES and Des came up as the very best for the job.

He clearly explained what the problems were and the best way to fix them. Des proved to be the right man to do it. When the work was completed, I knew he had done a good and honest job.

A carpenter was needed to repair some of my woodwork. Des recommended James, someone he'd worked with on other houses. He said his work was meticulous.

The pendulum said YES to James. In fact, all the jobs he did were beyond perfect. His personality was very likeable too!

In life's challenges, common sense solutions cannot often be applied, and they can even be deceiving. I find that the pendulum accesses the field of unlimited information and selects the best solution for the problem of the moment.

VALE NAN BOYD

It was with much sadness that we learned about Nan Boyd's sudden passing.

Nan Boyd

Nan will be both greatly missed and remembered. Our condolences to her daughters Judy and Sally, and to our DSV Treasurer, Malcolm Davies, husband to Judy.

"FIGHT AGAINST CANCER"

Our grateful thanks to a special friend of the DSV. She has anonymously contributed a part translation of her Hungarian uncle's book, "Fight Against Cancer", published in 1998. His work was valuable to many and also acknowledged by the Hungarian government.

After my Uncle Ivan graduated in Forest Engineering in 1945, he regularly engaged in water divining. His work was acknowledged nation-wide by farmers, co-ops, state farms, companies and private farmers whose water problems he solved. Ivan was actively searching and finding water until the mid 1990s. He observed the same phenomena as had well-known Dr. Michael Hernadi and came to the same conclusions. He noticed that some people developed cancer, leukemia, heart and joint problems when their beds were placed over water veins that passed through the earth layers as back-fillers for the River Danube.

Dr. Michel Hernadi consolidated his studies on asthma, joint pain, leukemia, brain tumors, several types of cancer and heart problems in 1954. He had observed that patients whose beds were positioned over some particular water veins for a prolonged time, developed these illnesses, despite successful medical intervention, when they continued sleeping in the same place. They usually passed away within one year. However, those who moved houses, or moved their bed to another, non-radiative place, recovered to enjoy full health in a short time.

Ivan's Editor's office used to be inundated with letters of gratitude from farmers thanking him for finding water with his simple "Y" shaped steel rod.

Most sophisticated devices couldn't.
