PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Good news! We are holding a meeting on 21 February! Monash Halls is kindly allowing us to use the main hall (on the left as you enter the Mount Waverley Community Centre) so there are no restrictions on the numbers of people attending. There's plenty of room so we'll have no problem keeping the required distance of 1.5m apart.

We have less time to meet, so please arrive at 1.30 pm, ready to start at 2pm sharp. (We have a total of 3 hours, including setting up and packing up) We'll obviously need to be mindful of distancing when signing in on arrival, at the Shop and at the Library. At present masking is required, but happily, even that is easing now, so we're hoping that we won't need them on 21 February.

I know so many of you have missed contact with fellow dowsers. Zoom, Facebook and Google have been helpful in keeping some of us connected, but there is nothing like seeing each other in person. At last we can do just that!

On another note, Heather Wilks and I learned the sad news that Fred Ward had passed on 10 January at home. Fortunately, his family were by his side and it was a smooth transition. He had battled illness for 10 years and was ready to be free of pain. Fred and Mary have been DSV members for possibly as long as 30 years. They've both always contributed greatly to the DSV. Fred was a wonderful President for many years. When I saw him recently and told him we were about to hold a proper meeting, he said to say hi to everyone. In recent times, even when not always able to attend our meetings, he's been a source of wise advice. We will greatly miss him, his sparkling eyes and his cheeky sense of humour.

I hope you enjoyed a happy Christmas or Hanukkah and a good New Year celebration. I am very grateful we can at last meet with family and friends in person.

Let's dowse to scramble negative situations and bring in positive, healing energy. I suggest talking to the Nature Spirits about keeping Australia's summer weather conditions calm – to keep us all safe from drought, bushfires, cyclones and flooding.

Please consider nominating for the DSV Committee at our next meeting in April. Some new ideas and energy would be fabulous.

We hope to see you on 21 February at 1.30 pm ready for a prompt start at 2.00pm.

Lyn Wood, President

VALE FRED WARD

We were very saddened to hear that Fred Ward had passed at home on 10 January 2021. Fortunately his transition was very peaceful. He had happily celebrated his 90th birthday with his family at Phillip Island in December.

Fred was a wonderful DSV President for many years. So many of us have special memories of him, including his playful, dry sense of humour.

The DSV was well represented at his funeral on Wednesday 20 January in Woori Yallock. We would like to extend our deepest sympathy to Mary and the entire Ward family. Rest in Peace Fred. We feel certain you'll be keeping those Angels amused.

OUR NEXT MEETING

It's now a full year since we last held a DSV meeting. Hard to believe. However, we're now ready to begin again. For this next meeting on Sunday 21 February, I will present – as your friendly Editor and Vice-President. My subject is “Releasing Anxiety, Stress and Exhaustion”. All very timely during this covid chaos.

I'll be using Dowsing protocols to help ease the effects of the covid situation. They're designed to help you with your personal experiences since the pandemic began and to encourage you to dowse regularly to minimise those responses as we go forward. I will also use some other tools which help to overcome stress.

To round off the day, we will show a couple of short videos from Raymon Grace – his recent “Problem Package” film and his “Random Acts of Kindness” film are quite unique and so helpful for us all in these very odd times.

I invite you to bring a list of all of the issues you'd like to work on – for yourself, family and friends. Together, as a group, we can work to maximise our Intentions to make 2021 Happy, Healthy, and Abundant, in every way possible.

CREATING HEALING PODS

Thanks to DSV Bev Ellison for this item by Sandy Brightman from August 2017.

A Healing Pod is a collection of vibrational objects specifically assembled and imbued with energy to promote healing and wellbeing. They can be created for yourself or another person. Your intention and loving energy are the healing mechanisms, with the objects serving as a material focus to hold and enhance these energies.

When someone you know is ill and you want to help them get better, sending loving thoughts, prayers, healing energy and blessings, all aid the healing process on a vibrational level. Imbuing objects with these healing vibrations sets up an ongoing connection, supplying your loved ones with continual healing energy. When you look at the healing pod you have created, you top up the energy on a regular basis.

How do you know what energy to send, what objects to use, how much and for how long? You can do no wrong when you have a pure intention to help and to send unconditional love. If your intention is to ignore their free will, to judge and control, because you want the person to heal, it's best not to create a healing pod! However, when your intent is to send unconditional love for the highest good of all, then anything is possible.

THE DSV SHOP

Now that we're able to meet again you'll be able to purchase all of those items you've been wanting from the DSV Shop.

We're well stocked with many different dowsing books and dowsing instruments.

Special items include Mick Moran's hand-made dowsing rods and, for the first time, Raymon Grace's bobbles.
